FOUNDER'S MESSAGE THAT GUIDES US

Late Shri T. I. John
Founder Director
St. John's Group of Schools

Education has always been the primary focus of progressive civilizations that have contributed to the welfare of the human race. Providing meaningful education to the children so as to shape them into contributing citizens is a concern equally shared by the parents and the educators.

Educating children is a complex responsibility which calls for the commitment of multifaceted people who can balance the unstoppable technological growth of this century with time tested traditions and values to arrive at that magical balance that can nurture the leaders of tomorrow.

May Lord Almighty be the guiding spirit behind every endeavor of this great institution!

About Us

St. John's School was founded in 1965 by Shri T.I. John under the aegis of Idicula Trust Society (Regd). Sprawled in four acres, the school is a majestic structure amidst sprawling greens. The school ambience is eco-friendly and pleasant. The atmosphere is maintained ambient conducive to the holistic development of the students.

The school is proud of its illumined alumni who are proactively contributing to the state and the nation as worthy bureaucrats, soldiers, educators, engineers, doctors, architects, chartered accountants, business men and so on. The school has produced many accomplished artists in the field of music, dance, fine arts and also illustrious sports persons.

Vision Statement

The school aims to provide consistent quality education, focusing on development of the students with robust spiritual, moral, social, professional and intellectual foundation.
